Dear [REDACTED],

We have accepted your offer in compromise signed and dated on 01/07/2013. The date of acceptance is the date of this letter and our acceptance is subject to the terms and conditions of Form 656, Offer in Compromise.

Please note that the conditions of the offer require you to file and pay all required taxes for five tax years. During this period of time payments are being made on the offer, you will no longer. This will begin on the date shown in the upper right corner of this letter.

Additionally, please remember that the conditions of the offer include the provision that in consideration for the offer, we will retain any refund or credit that you may be entitled to receive for 2013 or for earlier years. This includes refunds you receive in 2014 for any overpayment made toward tax year 2013 or toward earlier tax years. Refunds or credits will be applied to your liability, not the accepted offer amount. If a Notice of Federal Tax Lien was filed against your account, it will be released when the offer amount is paid in full. If the final payment is by credit or debit card, the Notice of Federal Tax Lien will not be released for up to 120 days from the date of the credit/debit payment.

If you are required to make any payments under this agreement, make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury and send it to:
